

Are you an adoptive parent or special guardian, looking for funding for therapeutic services for your family?

If so, are you aware of the Adoption Support Fund (ASF)?

This fund is for children and young people up to and including the age of 21 or 25 with an education, health and care plan.

Funding of up to £5,000 a child per year is available with additional funding of £2,500 a child if specialist assessments are needed.

Eligibility

- Children adopted who were previously in local authority care in England, Wales, Scotland and Northern Ireland
- Children adopted from overseas
- Children under a child arrangement order (CAO) or special guardianship order (SGO)
